

Our forest has many abandoned Cemeteries which were the final resting place for many of our original pioneers. Due to the communities relocating and changes in travel routes these are our Forgotten Ancestors. The place of interment of these pioneers is seldom viewed by a human. The forest and fences are merciful and protects these Cemeteries from agriculture. Many have not been as fortunate and have been destroyed by farming equipment and plowed under. All Photos were taken a short distance from Malone.

