

Williams Gas and Merchandise Store in Bolton Florida

Williams Gas and Merchandise Store in Bolton Florida. (yesteryear) Photo is undated however the auto is a 1926 Chevy. Williams was one of three stores supplying the area pioneers with needs in and around Bolton. The small town also had Friendship Church, a grist mill, cotton gin, sawmill, school, post office, and turpentine steel. In the latter part of 1800 and into the turn of the century Bolton was a small booming community. Now the only remaining building is Friendship Church.

