Married: May 17, 1891

Between 1910 and 1920 Daniel Hamilton Pynes went through a name change. A guess is shortly after 1910 everyone began addressing him as D.P. (short for Daniel Pynes) and it stuck. Even in the census of 1920 he is listed as D.P. Pynes. In the census of 1930 he had returned to Daniel Pynes. After death D.P. Pynes was struck on his headstone.
