

Felix Long Hart was the son of Hardy Hart and Mary Polly Strickland. Hardy was one of the early pioneer's to the Malone area. He migrated from Georgia and opened a large merchandise store and a tanner shop on what is now Banner road in the 1830's. Hardy died in 1866 and was buried in Collins Family Cernetry. This was a decade prior to David Collins donating it to the community.